Gentlemen:

I am aware that, beginning within the next few months, my husband, Mr. Paul Tracy, will practice, test, qualify and race your Indy cars.

In the event that he is injured or is killed as a result of those Indy car activities for Team, I will not sue Team, or any of its sponsors, agents, successors or assigns, and their parent and subsidiary companies, or their officers, employees, directors, shareholders, and partners, nor will I cause anyone else to conduct such litigation.

Yours faithfully,

Tara Tracy
